Creative Writing

Creative Writing is a way of expressing oneself and stepping out of the norm. Poetry, fiction such as short stories, and creative non-fiction are all types of creative writing. Below you will find tips and tricks to help you get started creating your own pieces of creative literature.

Genres

Action - Adventure - Comedy - Crime - Drama - Fantasy - Historical - Horror - Legend - Mystery - Romance - Satire - Science Fiction - Thriller

These are many, but certainly not all, of the different genres in writing. Certain genres, such as Science Fiction, have sub genres within. Science fiction can be broken up into space opera, steam punk, apocalyptic, post-apocalyptic, and more.

How to Overcome Writer's Block

- Change your surroundings
- Write non-stop for 10 minutes
- Take a break
- Look for inspiration elsewhere
- Try a new activity

Tips for Editing & Proofreading

- Take a break and go back to your work
- Print a hard copy and mark edits in a different color pen
- Read your work out loud
- Have a different set of eyes edit and give feedback

IN-CLASS ACTIVITY

Think of the first 15 words that come to mind when thinking about an amusement park.

- | | | |
|----|-----|-----|
| 1. | 6. | 11. |
| 2. | 7. | 12. |
| 3. | 8. | 13. |
| 4. | 9. | 14. |
| 5. | 10. | 15. |

Using all of the words from above, construct a short story or poem in the style or genre of your choice.

IN-PARK ACTIVITY

Choose one of the writing activities below. Take notice of your surroundings while you are visiting Canobie Lake Park and write about your experience.

Blog Entry

Imagine you are working for a trendy travel website. Write a review about your visit to Canobie in the style of a blog. Make sure to give your readers an inside look at what they'll be seeing if they choose to visit in the future.

Journal Entry

Write about your experience at Canobie Lake Park. Remember this is a journal so you want to look back at it in the future and remember everything about that day. Describe the sights and sounds of your visit along with any exciting events that happened during your field trip.

Newspaper Article

Pretend you are a writer for a local newspaper. It is your job to come to the park and let your readers know what to expect when they get here. Interview your friends, gather information, and even take pictures to add to your article. Remember to add an eye catching headline too!

Rap/Song

Get your creativity flowing and write an original song or rap recapping what you did at Canobie. You can use your own beats or take inspiration from some of your favorite artists. Your song could be the next #1!
